Privacy Practices Information Notice

The privacy of your personal information is extremely important. We respect your right to privacy and are committed to maintaining the confidentiality of all your nonpublic personal information that we obtain as a result of providing tax or other financial services for you. This notice describes our practices concerning the handling of your nonpublic personal information.

We treat all nonpublic personal information obtained from you during the course of providing tax or other financial services as confidential. To this end, we maintain physical and electronic safeguards to ensure that all your personal information is secure. These safeguards include shredding of all unnecessary hardcopy documents as well as password protection and other data encryption safeguards on all electronic data files. We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our current or former clients to anyone, unless we have been authorized to do so in writing and in advance by the client.

We value our professional relationship and will strive to earn your continued trust. Thank you for allowing us the opportunity to serve you.

Very truly yours,

J. Peter Doyle
President
